

Civilian Basic Precision Rifle – 3-Day Course

WHERE:
Fort Morgan, CO

WHEN:

INSTRUCTOR: FRANK GALLI

COST:
$1,000.00 per person
Includes Field Completion Certificate

REQUIREMENTS:
Precision Rifle 6mm to 338LM
Optic – Target Turrets/ Mils or MOA
Bipod
Sand sock / rear bag
Shooting Mat
Sling
Backpack / ruck
Hearing protections
Notebook with pen and pencil
250 Rounds Ammo (minimum), 350 Recommended

Cellphone with Hornady 4DOF application
Seasonal clothing / Colorado Front Range
Rifle cleaning kit
Cleaning kit for optics

Optional equipment: Kestrel weather meter, spotting scope, tripod, shooting sticks, kneepads, data book

CONTACT:
Jamie @ 303-255-9999 or jamie@milehighshooting.com

need link

Open to Civilian and LE – basic no prerequisite

Objective:

Give Shooters the tools to effectively engage in targets with a precision rifle systems and optics out to 1250 yards, to include known distance, unknown distance, rapid engagements and alternate positions.

Day 1:

Classroom:

- Fundamental Evaluation
- Overview of the fundamentals of Marksmanship
- Introduction to optics
- Rifle setup
- Scope set up – level, eye relief and adjusting parallax
- Introduction to ballistics
- Ballistic software Hornady 4DOF / TRSAOL

Range:

- Body position and trigger control
- Zero / Grouping exercise
- Chronograph use
- True ballistics systems for muzzle velocity
- Target engagements 25 – 1125 yards
- Weapons cleaning

50 rounds per student

Day 2:

Classroom:

- Reticle Use
- Wind Reading
- Data Collection

Range:

- Milling exercise
- Target engagements using mil relation formula to 800 yards
- Known distance target engagements 200 – 1250 yards
- Confirming data and software

100 rounds per student

Day 3:

Classroom:

- Data Collection Review
- Shooter's Choice topics

Range:

- Target engagements utilizing holds 300 – 800 yards
- Tripods and other supported positions
- Barricades
- Open Range shoot to distance to end class

100 rounds per student

300 TOTAL ROUNDS IDEAL